

Knowledge Mobilization Bursary for Graduate Students

Application for free course registration October 2024

The University of Guelph's Certificate in Knowledge Mobilization builds capacity to identify and address barriers to knowledge exchange and implementation, and to use tools and techniques to enhance the impact of research and the development of evidence-informed policy and practice.

The Community Engaged Scholarship Institute (CESI) is committed to increasing access to the Certificate to graduate students, post-doctoral researchers, as well as individuals working in not-for-profits or social service organizations. To support participation, CESI is offering bursaries to Course 1, Inform: Processes of knowledge translation and dissemination taking place online from January 6, 2025, to March 16, 2025. For the program description and eligibility criteria please visit our webpage.

Background Information

Name of applicant:

Email address:

Program of study/area of research:

Short description of your current or future research:

Applicant's statement of interest

Use the space provided below to discuss (maximum 300 words):

- Your motivation for participating in Inform: Processes of knowledge translation and dissemination;
 - How you plan to apply the acquired knowledge and skills in your current or future research, and the expected impact of your research.
-

Submit your application by completing and emailing this form to cesi@uoguelph.ca by 4:30 pm on Wednesday, November 6, 2024. Please send your application with the Subject Line: Inform Course Bursary Application.

